

Yorkshire and the Humber Local Supervising Authority
Winter conference

“ A call to action: reducing stillbirths?”

An NHS England (North) conference for Supervisors of midwives and anyone with an interest in maternity services, with support from Public Health England

Friday 22nd November 2013, at De Vere Village Hotel, Leeds North 186 Otley Road, Headingley, Leeds, LS16 5PR

Directions to the venue can be located at:

<http://www.village-hotels.co.uk/hotels/leeds-north/welcome>

8.45 - 9.15	Arrival, registration and coffee
9:15 - 9:30	Welcome and Introduction by Chair - Carol Paeglis, LSA Midwifery Officer, Yorkshire and the Humber
9:30 - 10.00	Why babies die - Dr Alexander Heazell, Senior Clinical Lecturer in Obstetrics, St Mary's Hospital, Manchester
10.00 - 10.30	The public health picture in the North . Dr Helen Duncan, ChiMat Programme Director, Public Health England
10.30 - 11.00	The North East and North Cumbria: challenges and solutions - Dr Martin Ward Platt, Clinical Director, Regional Maternity Survey Office
11.00 - 11.30	Coffee, networking and exhibitions
11.30 - 12.30	Introduction to and workshop 1 - Working together: opportunities, solutions and best practice successes - Carol Paeglis, LSA Midwifery Officer
12:30 - 1.30	Lunch, networking and exhibitions
1:30 - 2.00	Reducing stillbirths: the West Midlands experience - Professor Jason Gardosi, Perinatal Institute
2:00 - 2.30	Lessons from stillbirth reviews - Tomasina Stacey, Consultant Midwife Mid Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust
2.30 - 3.30	Introduction to and workshop 2: Moving towards consistency in our stillbirth reviews - Carol Paeglis, LSA Midwifery Officer Working coffee
3.30 – 3.50	Feedback . All
3.50 – 4.15	The way forward for the North . Gill Harris, Chief Nurse, NHS England (North)
4.15	Close

