Fetal Growth 2014

Following on from successful meetings in 2012 (Birmingham) and 2013 (Baltimore), we are pleased to invite you to the Third International Conference on Fetal Growth in Keble College, Oxford. The meeting is convened by the Perinatal Institute with the help of an international organising committee and a high profile Faculty. It will provide comprehensive updates of the latest evidence, and a forum in which to discuss implications for clinical practice, audit and further research.
